REVOLT IN MOROCCO

Ministers and Court Officers Dismissed in Disgrace.

REBELLION IN PROGRESS IN THE VICINITY OF TANGER.

Dublin Officials Say the Castle Explosion Was Not a Venial Affair—Nova Scotia's Shipping Decreased—Favorable British Comment on America's New Navy—Brief Foreign News.

GIBRALTAR, Jan. 2.—News received here from Tangier, the capital of Morocco, indicates state of affairs in the vicinity of the city. No explanation is given of the trouble, but it is said that the tribes in the neighborhood of Tangier are in open rebellion against Mulai Ismaïl, the Sultan of Morocco.

Matters in Morocco have been in a turbulent condition for some time past. In November last news reached Tangier from Fes, the principal city of the country and its real capital, that all the Morocco ministers and court had been dismissed in disgrace.

Among the fallen was Mulai Ismaïl, the Sultan's favorite brother. He had for several years held the Khalifahship of his brother, that is to say, he was the spiritual head of the Moslems to whom all cases already decided by the local Governors could be referred.

Excepting the Sultan and the various heads of the Moslem families, the Khalifa was the only man from whom the nobility of Morocco thought they could expect judgment without derogation. No reason was known for the fall of the Sultan, it was thought to be the result of a plot in which he had many friends among the upper classes and among the tribesmen, and it may be his dismissal is the cause of the present trouble. It was said by some of the natives at the time of his exile from Fez that Mulai Ismaïl was the instigator of a plot designed to bring about the fall of his brother.

This affords a basis for conjecture that the rebellion now in progress in the vicinity of Tangier may perhaps be an attempt to carry out the plans of the alleged conspirators.

sion to do so, and had not incurred the slightest blame. From this it is inferred that the Bishop mentioned either has not received or heard of M. Fallières' famous circular, or that he has misinterpreted its meaning.

EPIDEMIC INFECTED.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—A smallpox in virulent forms is raging in Somersetshire and Dorsetshire. In those counties labor on the farms has practically been stopped by the disease. The number of cattle is the same, but the cattle in many places are left entirely unattended owing to the laborers and farmers being down with the epidemic prevailing.

INFLUENZA SPREADING.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 2.—Influence is spreading rapidly in Belgium and Holland. In some districts of the two countries very heavy losses are reported. The epidemic is virulent in Gothenburg, Sweden.

GIBRALTAR, Jan. 2.—The first production of the new opera, "La Paganina," was a decided success. The best numbers were warmly applauded, but not a single number was encored. Strauss himself received many calls, but the popular ovation was addressed to the man rather than to his music.

BRIEF MENTION.

DISASTERS.—Heavy floods are reported in Upper Austria. Many bridges have been badly damaged by rising rivers, and hundreds of trees have been uprooted.

CANADA'S NEW DEPARTMENTAL REGULATIONS PROVIDING FOR CIVIL SERVICE AND FOR APPOINTING OFFICIALS COMMENCE WILL COME INTO VIGOR TO-DAY AND WILL BE RIGIDLY ENFORCED.

A BEvy of American ladies, including Miss Mary Mitchell, the duchess of the Duc de Rohan, and others, were at Mrs. Reed at New Year's reception at Paris.

THE AUSTRALIAN PHYLLOXERA Board reports that the disease has been eradicated through-out Victoria.

ONE MAN'S ATTACK OF INFLUENZA IS ONLY SLIGHT. Yesterday the King received the greeting of a deputation of the Chamber of Representatives. He expressed his concurrence in the opinion that economic and political reforms and an extension of the franchise are imperative.

The Brazilian Government has rescinded the law requiring foreign mail to be handled by British posts, present invoices and of sending to Brazilian Consulates for legalization.

AWAITING ORDERS.

The Charleston and San Francisco Lying at San Diego.

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 2.—The cruisers San Francisco and Charleston are lying near each other in the harbor. Capt. Remy has very little to do, but to wait for orders. Capt. Remy says that since leaving here in the July the Charleston has been at Japan, China and Honolulu and on the return to this country encountered terrible high seas which the cruiser stood splendidly. The returned to Charlevoix and the two ships have been engaged in fortifying the station and were about to establish a Governor's residence. The object of improving the port facilities was deserted.

It was added, moreover, that where the French occupied the Touatt oasis, the possession which is disputed by the Sultan, the trade of Ismaïl would be transferred to Cape Juby.

A British gunboat has already started from Gibraltar to protect the British interests at that place, and the battle-ship "Thunderer" is en route to reinforce her. The gunboat is a 1,000-ton iron-turret ship, armor plated of 8,000 tons and 8,000 horse power. She mounts four guns.

TAMING DOWN.

INVESTIGATION SHOWS THE DUBLIN CASTLE EXPLOSION WAS NOT PLANNED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 2.—The General was made to day that Judge Advocate General has been ordered to go secretly to command and investigate into the affair upon the Baltimore train. Col. Remey left Washington yesterday and will be in the City of Mexico and will also be at the head of the commission that the British authorities are taking prompt and energetic steps to protect British interests in Morocco. In possession of the British is Captain Juby. It was reported some time since that the British had determined to abandon this place, but it was later learned that the British had done so. On the contrary, it was declared that they were actively engaged in fortifying the station and were about to establish a Governor's residence. The object of improving the port facilities was deserted.

"We know absolutely nothing about the Cuban situation," he said. "There were 12,000 men at the port of Tampa when he left Honolulu to meet the San Francisco to take ammunition. On Monday we will take complete information from the San Francisco and await further orders." Capt. Remy declined to say whether Cuba or not, but it is evident that he regards the situation as serious. The British are making preparations to move to Cuba. It is evident in the opinion of the revolutionaries and cutlaws that Garza is a prominent and dangerous anarchist.

There are indications that a capture of Garza is imminent. The revolutionaries are said to be in contact with Garza within the last three weeks and all state that he is abundantly supplied with arms and ammunition. They are to either furnish Garza for beat or receive pay for the animals or take the alternative of having them taken away for him.

COL. REMY'S MISSION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 2.—The War Department is to direct the investigation of the explosion at the Dublin castle, Ireland, yesterday. Col. Remey left Washington yesterday and will be in the City of Mexico and will also be at the head of the commission that the British authorities are taking prompt and energetic steps to protect British interests in Morocco. In possession of the British is Captain Juby. It was reported some time since that the British had determined to abandon this place, but it was later learned that the British had done so. BLIZZARD WEATHER.

Snowstorms throughout the Whole Northwest.

CHICAGO, Jan. 2.—Disasters from various Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota states that a severe blizzard is raging in those States. Snow has been falling for several hours and the mercury is rapidly reaching far below zero. At 12 m. midday at Waukegan, Illinois, it was 40° and 70° below zero. The thermometer registered of only one. In Prince Edward Island there has been a decrease of 36 vessels and 2,500 tons. The total number of vessels now registered in the port of Charlottetown is 2,500, and the tonnage 15,000.

The business failures in Halifax during the year just ended numbered 16, showing a total of $261,000 and assets of $142,800. In the whole province of Nova Scotia last year there were 155 failures, with liabilities of $260,000 and assets of $147,450.

HALIFAX, Nova Scotia, Jan. 2.—The steamer "Waverley" was damaged by fire, but was able to get into port.

NEWFOUNDLAND during the past year there were 29 failures, with liabilities of $275,700. The exports of fish from Halifax to West India and other foreign countries during the past year aggregated 247,500 quintals of dry and 56,120 barrels of pickled.

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

FAVORABLE COMMENTS ON AMERICA'S NEW NAVY—BRIEF MENTION.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—The "St. James Gazette," referring to the recent trials of the United States Navy, says that in spite of the occasional mistakes, the Americans are making steady and surprising progress towards becoming a naval power, adding: "There is no doubt that the new United States Navy is attracting much earnest attention in Europe, and the result of the gun trials of the double turreted monitor 'Minnesota' are being closely watched here."

ANOTHER REPRIMAND.

PARIS, Jan. 2.—The Bishop of Worcs., M. Fallières, has stopped the salutation of the Bishop of Carcassonne because the latter only visited Rome without first obtaining leave from the Minister of Public Works.

In accordance with the order issued by all the after the Pantheon disturbance at city. The Bishop of Carcassone was in Rome to fulfil his spirit in a manner similar to that of the priests, when he had not asked permis-

PLATE-Glass windows were smashed, awnings on new buildings leaped, patrol and street car started boxes upset in the gale that swept through the city.

The lake was wild, the waves beating the breakwater in a mighty roar and the gale was so great that it was impossible to remain interfering with the operations of street railways, the telegraph and telephone wires and in some cases with the gas pipe.

WIND IN THE HEAD.

THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT WILL PAY WELL FOR GARZA'S DEATH.

LAREDO, Tex., Jan. 2.—Col. Cárdenas of the Mexican army reiterates a denial of a revolt and the killing of Gen. García. When Garza crossed the river and menaced Mier and Cáceres and had boldly attacked these places he could have secured $300,000 which was in his custom-house. He had plenty of men well armed and well mounted. All the present hostile sides of the river are in touch with him and it is impossible to get any assistance looking toward his capture. No one who has seen him can doubt that he was worth about $300 in cash and debts due him. There is no such amount in debts due him. He has written me a dozen letters asking me to return, but will not. I don't know what he wants.

Second is still living at Packwood, Wis., while his blushing new bride makes the rounds of the country. The young couple have been married since October 1st, and the afternoon papers declare that the chances of Foraker are a great deal brighter than they were yesterday.

BISHOP W. PERKINS.

GOV. HUMPHREY'S SELECTION TO FILL THE PLUMB VACANCY.

TOPKA, Kan., Jan. 2.—Ex-Congressman Bishop W. Perkins was yesterday appointed by Gov. Humphrey to the Senate vacancy caused by the death of Senator Flamm, and the commission was duly signed and sent to Mr. Perkins, who is stopping at the Copeland.

Weather forecast for twenty-four hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for Missouri: Fair till Monday; stationary temperature; northerly winds. The storm central yesterday morning in this vicinity has moved eastward to the Lower Lake region, the lowest pressure recorded being 1005. The pressure at 20, 26 inches. Rain has preceded and accompanied the storm eastward, averaging about half of each to the entire territory east of the Mississippi River. Behind the storm has followed a severe cold wave, changing the temperature far east as Tennessee. True weather has progressed as far south as Northern Indiana. The light snow covering Missouri, Illinois, Indiana and Michigan will proceed westward. The cold wave does not extend westward, so that points northwest of the temperature is rising.

Weather forecast for St. Louis for forty-eight hours ending 3 a. m., Jan. 4: Fair, generally cloudy weather; nearly stationary temperature today, followed by rising temperature.

The position of the first Governor to usurp the powers of the Legislature in a time of peace would not be a pleasant one for Gov. FRANCIS.

The public may depend upon finding an unusually bright budget of good things in the first issue of the SUNDAY Post-DISPATCH for this year.

It is hard on the Republican party, but gratifying to the country, that the courts refuse to endorse attempts to steal governments and State Legislatures.

WHEN FORAKER remarked, "I am a Republican from the top of my head to the soles of my feet," he undoubtedly told the truth, but he would have been more considerate of the feelings of his fellow Republicans not to have said it.

No one has ever said anything that contained so mean a reflection upon the Republicans of Ohio as the fact that SHERMAN has to scramble and rely on the corps of Federal officeholders to keep FORAKER from getting his seat in the Senate.

The SUNDAY Post-DISPATCH accepts advertising on a distinct and unequivocal guarantee that its circulation in the City of St. Louis and suburbs is more than double that of the "Repub" and larger than any other Sunday newspaper.

JERRY SIMPSON was opposed to BEN SISKIN as United States Senator on the ground that the family is already well represented in Washington. This is needless jealousy. JERRY is neither grand nor gloomy, but he is so popular that he is safe from rivalry. He has an unapproachable, imitable individuality.

If "ARCHIE" GRAHAM succeeds in his endeavor to convert the "Push," and turns its members from seeking the flesh-pots of politics by sinful ways into following the path of righteousness and honest labor, he can have the highest ecclesiastical rewards within the gift or influence of the people of St. Louis. The grain is ripe for the harvest.

WHILE the Marquis of Hartington maintained some show of liberalism in the Commons, the Duke of Devonshire goes into the House of Lords a thorough Conservative. His farewell speech to his constituents was an unqualified eulogy of the Tory party, and the once prominent and progressive Liberal statesman takes his place among the titled back numbers of British politics.

PRESIDENT DIAZ should try the offer of a commission in the Mexican army as a means of bringing GOMEZ into submission. This method of disposing of revolutionaries is not without precedent in Mexico. GOMEZ has shown that he is an active, able young man who would be a credit to a Central American army, and convict soldiers would not object to having a bandit as an officer.

Gov. FRANCIS cannot find a lawyer to give an opinion that the calling of an extra session is not the right way to have the electoral vote question safely settled, whereas he has found several who dispute his right to redistribute it. He has, his choice, therefore, between a method which can give the State such an example of good government under Democracy as will deprive the Republicans of every peg upon which to hang a campaign issue.

POINTS FOR A PRIZE ESSAY.

Competitors for the prize recently offered for the best essay on the benevolent effects of the McKinley law will not find difficulty in hitting upon salient points worth noting, but let them be led into confusing and unsatisfactory attempts to show that it has made coats and other necessary articles "cheap and nasty" while it has raised the wages of workmen, it is not amiss to suggest the principal effects which may be regarded of the greatest ultimate beneficence.

Of course the wise essayist will not fail to call attention to the fact that the McKinley law enabled the millionaire manufacturers to vastly increase their profits and income through higher prices, although the cost of materials and labor remained practically the same. In consequence of this beneficial result the Republican party was enabled to command an enormous campaign fund, by means of which they saved McKinley from defeat and held down the Democratic majority elsewhere.

But from the broader view of the good of the whole people the effect of the adoption of the McKinley law which was the most direct, immediate and of the greatest benefit was the turning down of the Representatives who voted for it. To realize the scope of this beneficial influence it is only necessary to mention that the protection vote in the House was reduced from a majority to a pitiful minority, in round numbers from 176 to 87, and the majority in the Senate was shaved down to a close margin.

Another most advantageous result of the law is that "the worst tariff measure ever framed" it has called popular attention in a striking way to the iniquities of the protection system, and thus bids fair to be the means of its thorough reform.

It is possible that an essay which clearly brought out these points and eloquently discussed them would not command itself as best to the committee of award, but it ought to, and if the decision were left to the people the writer would be given the prize by a handsome majority.

HAVE WE AN ATTORNEY-GENERAL?

Gov. FRANCIS has received and published opinions from ex-judges, ex-statemen and ex-provost-marshal advising him to set aside the act of the Legislature which has governed the appointment of Missouri electors ever since 1884, and to set up a new manner of choosing electors under an alleged authority conferred by an old, unused statute which has been a dead letter on our state books since 1885.

He has also been advised by State Senators and others through the press, that the old dead letter statute aforesaid cannot clothe him with the legislative authority to repeal living statutes, create new electoral appointment machinery and exercise a function which the Constitution of the United States vests in the State Legislature exclusively.

But no opinion on the subject has been sought or obtained from the Attorney-General appointed and paid by the people of Missouri as the legal adviser of their State officers. At least no such official opinion has been issued. Is our Attorney-General absent, indisposed or incapable, in the Governor's opinion, of defining the Governor's authority and official duty with respect to the appointment of our electors?

The women of Poland went into mourning yesterday in commemoration of the murder of Polish nationality, the spoliation of the country and the destruction of its independence, a hundred years ago. No striking method of reviving the memory of the great wrong suffered by the Poles could be devised. The somber dress of the Polish women will serve to remind the world of the villainy of which military despotism is capable, to prick the consciences of the rulers who are still profiting by the crime of their fathers and to prove the remarkable devotion of the Poles to their country, which has survived the persecution of a century.

In spite of armament and "militarism," the world is coming to regard war as ridiculous. No more abominable utterance has been heard in Washington for years. Gen. HORACE PORTER's pronouncement in favor of war as a nursery of patriotism, true patriotism is pride in one's own country's superior enlightenment, and in the advantages it affords for the development of individual character. This is the ideal set up by the American people, and it will not be shattered by the concussion of Gen. HORACE PORTER's bray.

GOV. HUMPHREY was bound to name a Republican as successor to the late Senator PLUMB, and therefore he could not be expected to select a man who represents the political sentiments of a majority of Kansans. Still he might have found a man who could carry his own Congressional district, and whose successive campaigns for Congress would not show a reduction of vote from a majority of 6,000 to a minority of 5,000, which is the record of ex-Congressman PRKINS.

Gov. FRANCIS cannot find a lawyer to give an opinion that the calling of an extra session is not the right way to have the electoral vote safely settled, whereas he has found several who dispute his right to redistribute it. He has, his choice, therefore, between a method which can give the State such an example of good government under Democracy as will deprive the Republicans of every peg upon which to hang a campaign issue.

VICE-PRESIDENT WEBB of the New York Central will not adopt a block system until he makes up his mind which is the "most perfect." He probably means the system which is most nearly perfect and would say so if he were not as reckless in the use of language as he is in the care of passengers. But while he is looking for what he wants he might, with profit, do the best he can with a system which does not aspire to perfection. Passengers on his railroad would prefer bad security rather than none at all.

Chairman Springer.

Undoubtedly two or three times are back of the selection of Mr. Springer as Chairman of Ways and Means. One is the need of a leader on the floor who, besides ability, possesses good temper and a happy faculty of making things as agreeable as circumstances will permit for his associates, and of leading them to a conclusion of their work. Another is the need of having a leader on the floor who is in general sympathy with the Speaker in the chair and the party majority that put him there. Another is the need of placing the Democratic party before the country in its true character of a national and not a Southern party—a Southern leader in the chair, a Northern leader on the floor, and a leader on the floor who will not make it difficult for his special business friends to lead.

A DANGEROUS SPORT

Bloody Record of the New Sparrow Guns.

AN ALARMING NUMBER OF CASES OF LOST EYES.

The Boy and the Sparrow Gun Main Scores of People—Great Force With Which the Pellets Are Thrown—Records of the Illinois Eye and Ear Infirmary—General Indignation.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 1.—The law placing a ban on sparrow scalps has been the cause of a great amount of human suffering in this city and vicinity. The records at the Illinois Eye and Ear Infirmary show a startling state of affairs. "We have had twelve cases here in the last two weeks," said Dr. Leo M. Willard, house surgeon at the Infirmary. "All of them caused by these sparrow guns. In two cases we have had to remove the eyes and in both cases have found a BB shot had penetrated the ball. One case was that of Annie Wright of Washington Heights. She was shot on Saturday, in the house, by a shotgun six years old. One eye was lost and the other was injured. In almost every case the sight is lost permanently. Little Henry Batten of Joliet, Ill., was brought here and left with the use of his right eye completely lost; also did Charles Burket of Glenco, who was shot by an 8-year-old lad. There surely must be some way to stop this outrage."

Rey Carpenter of 884 North Robey street was shot in and when his eye was removed a BB shot was found to have penetrated the ball and lodged back of the crystalline lens.

Dr. Boerne Beittman of the Polyclinic is very emphatic in his denunciation of the sparrow guns. "I have attended cases at the hospital and have had several under private treatment," said he. "One in particular was that of Emil Anderson of 8 West Division. The ball caused a rupture of the iris and a cataract is now forming over the injured eye."

Dr. E. L. Holmes had under his treatment last week Edward Noonan, who was shot in the right eye by his little brother. The use of that eye was completely lost, although it was necessary to remove the optic itself. The other eye became sympathetically affected.

But little of this shooting, it is said, is accidental. In almost every instance deliberate. In almost every instance deliberate. A boy, who was shot by a子弹, it is said, because he refused to dance. These sparrow guns, it is said, are dangerous, even in the hands of one who is well aware of the perils of their use. The case of E. B. that will penetrate a one-fourth inch pine board and might possibly cause death should a person be struck in the temple. Undertaker Postlewait of 80 Ogden avenue, had a serious accident with a BB gun, which caused him to lose his right eye. The ball had struck a portion of the iris and a cataract is now forming over the injured eye."

John J. Daly's Remains Laid to Rest in Calvary.

The funeral of the late John J. Daly took place this morning from the family residence, 2615 Pine street, and was largely attended by the deceased. From the residence the cortège proceeded to the Church of the Immaculate Conception on Locust street and Locust street, where solemn services were held over the remains, conducted by Rev. Father Powers. The church was decorated with emblems of mourning and the cross from the ranks of the intimate friends of the dead. Owing to the illness, Mr. Daly it was decided to have a funeral service and monuments as simple as possible, and for this reason the Knights of St. Patrick, of which Mr. Daly was a member, did not turn out as large. The services at the church lasted from 9:30 until 11 and the remains were laid to rest in the family cemetery and laid to rest in the family lot.

Getting a Start in Life

A difficult task sometimes. As a latter day millionaire remarked, "The hardest part of the road to fortune was the saving of the first $100." Deposit your savings with the Chemical National Bank. They allow a liberal interest on trust deposits, and you'll soon have the first $100.

"Crazy" Ward Hurt Again.

"Crazy" Ward, who has been more or less drunk since his release from the City Hospital on Christmas day, had a set-to with an electric motor last evening. Ward got tight and laid in wait for a St. Louis, Mo., electrician, who was to repair the motor. As it approached he lowered his shoulders and plunged forward. He was knocked thirty feet, picked up unconscious and carried to the City Hospital in a critical condition.

Stand Alone.

It is a fact which can be proven by a single trial, that the flavor given to cakes, puddings, creams, sausages, by Dr. Price's Delicious Flavoring Extracts, are as natural as the fruit and are as much unlike, in delicate flavor and strength, the cheap extracts as can possibly be imagined. In these respects they stand alone in the market. Dr. Price's Vanilla is a year old before it is bottled and offered for sale. Age softens and develops its fine and delicate flavor.

IS SLAVIN AFRAID?

The Australian Withdraws From His Match With Jackson.

PETER DECLAIRES HE WILL MAKE HIS COUNTRYMAN FIGHT HIM.

Slavin Claims He Is Taking the Step to "Get Even" With His Backer for Not Matching Him with Sullivan—Racing, Base Ball and Sporting News in General.

The latest information from New York is to the effect that Slavin has positively determined to throw up his match with Jackson and devote his entire attention to making a match with Sullivan. Slavin gives as his reason for giving up the match with Jackson the action of George Plessie, his backer, who refused to back him against Sullivan. Slavin claims that Plessie is the principal owner of the National Club, and that he would not let him go if Jackson was to occur, and he decides that he will do nothing, but will put any money in Plessie's pocket, now that the perfume manufacturer has refused to put up the money for a match with Sullivan. This may be Slavin's only reason for crawling out of the match, but it looks very much as if he really feared the black, although it has been generally believed here that he came with the clever Peter Jackson.

Slavin, however, each claims that the other feared to meet him in Australia and the present conduct on the part of Slavin makes it appear that he is unwilling to fight the negro. If Slavin does not want to fight Jackson, before the National Club of London has him make a match with Jackson, he will have either the California or Pacific Clubs of San Francisco, either of whom will give a purse of $12,000 for the affair, which is $10,000 more than the Englishman.

The fact is that Slavin's backer wanted his agreement with Sullivan to hold good whether he (Slavin) won or lost to Jackson, looks as if the Australian doubted his ability to win his countryman of color.

Mr. Jackson, however, has agreed to fight him in Australia, and it is to be hoped that he will be successful.

Frank Slavin has decided that he will throw up his match with Peter Jackson and remain in this country until he succeeds in finding a finisher with John L. Sullivan. Slavin, however, has agreed to fight him in Australia and the present conduct on the part of Slavin makes it appear that he is unwilling to fight the negro. If Slavin does not want to fight Jackson, before the National Club of London has him make a match with Jackson, he will have either the California or Pacific Clubs of San Francisco, either of whom will give a purse of $12,000 for the affair, which is $10,000 more than the Englishman.

There is considerable speculation here as to whether the decision of Col. Churchill will necessitate the sale of the Louisville Jockey Club grounds, says a dispatch from the Kentucky metropolis. The property belonged jointly to Col. Churchill and his son, John. The sale of the grounds will turn on the provisions of Col. Churchill's will. If this property is to be divided, the will provides that the son, John Churchill, however, left no children, and it is understood that his will divides all of his property among his brothers, John, Frank, and Bert, or Graveston, and little if any at Morris Park. Some horses are yet under the care of the deceased, however, and all are out of danger. It is to be hoped that Merry Monarch will come out sound and well, and that the others will not run through the same paces. The crack gelding Dashine, owned by Brewster Ruppert, is lame behind.

HOW THE FLYERS SPENT CHRISTMAS.

The next case was Henry Billing, a thin white-headed boy who had not seen more than 16 new years. Accordingly he celebrated with considerable zest yesterday. Henry looked very well for all he had had to eat of his dinner, however, and was particularly interested in the bottom of his hat. His appearance spoke well for him and he was allowed to go on a promise to never do it again.

"Not guilty, Your Honor, I ain't no chipper and if that policeman says so he's a liar,"

"Twenty dollars," said his Honor.

Next came Caspar Stazman, who if he is not the oldest man in town, is the most.

"You were you drunk yesterday?"

"Vy, of course, your Honor. It was New Year's Day, und I was making a celebriation."

The police officer not being present the Judge told Caspar to go and see his backer, John Churchill, and his son, John.
